SAWTELLE NAMES PARTNER AS CLERK

Action Chances Surprise in Phoenix as Ashurst's Brother-in-Law Was Supposed Stated.
Phoenix, Ariz., Aug. 22.—Political wisecracks are astonished by the news from Tucson that William H. Sawtelle, whose appointment as federal judge for the district of Arizona was confirmed early this week, has selected his law partner, George W. Lewis, to be clerk of the court.
Word had come from Washington that James Pitts, of Phoenix, brother-in-law of senator Henry F. Ashurst, was to be clerk of the court. It was said that Ashurst had agreed to support Sawtelle for the judgeship on condition that Sawtelle would appoint Pitts clerk, also that senator Mark Smith would support Thomas A. Flynn for United States attorney and Joe Dillon for marshal, but Sawtelle did not agree to appoint Pitts as his clerk. Instead he has selected Lewis, his law partner, and will bring his own stenographer, Miss Emma R. Purves, to Phoenix as his secretary.

It is said that both Flynn and Dillon have ceased their efforts to be appointed United States attorney and marshal, having been informed that they will be appointed as soon as the terms of the present Republican incumbents expire.
